HELPFUL HINTS FOR SENIORS:

- Scholarship Lists updated bi-weekly and can also be found on the Counseling webpage at sbps.net. Hard copies are in the Counseling Office on the wall; a different color indicates a new list. Hint: you can see them from the hallway! 🙄
- Transcript requests for scholarship (please do not wait until the last minute) or admission applications can be made in our office by the student. Know your deadlines, plan ahead, use reminder apps.
- As a courtesy, ask for letters of recommendation in advance, i.e. teachers, counselors, administrators, employers - do not wait until the last minute to ask someone you value to write one on your behalf.
- Keep track of your logins and passwords for online scholarship accounts, and even admissions/school accounts.
- Know your application for admission deadlines to various schools. Every school is different. Pay attention to their general scholarship application deadlines too!
- Sign up for newsletters of outside, national scholarship offerings. Be wary of third party sites. Use our recommended sites listed by our office if you're not sure.
- Take advantage of EdQuest meetings, parent meetings and FAFSA assistance this Fall and Winter. Pay attention to REMIND or social media advertising these events.
- Organization is key!
